

I John 1:1-4

I John 1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

In a book that details what is necessary to gain fellowship with the Father and the Son,¹ and which was written to confirm if a man has eternal life or not,² this verse is remarkable in that the emphasis is directly centered upon the personal and spiritual relationship the apostle John had with Jesus Christ. He is the one John hopes to reveal to the world, and He is the one Whom John knows holds the key to gaining eternal life. Ultimately, Christ is the Word of life, the manifested form of God, Who leads to life. John gives Jesus Christ this title because through Him God's knowledge of the way to gain eternal life is revealed. As the Word, not only is Christ God's revelation to man, but He is also God's path to heaven.

(Barnes' Notes on the Bible, John 1:1) The Son of God may be called "the Word," because he is the medium by which God promulgates His will and issues His commandments. (END QUOTE)

Man is saved by Christ because He is the living Word of God. Where previously obedience to the Mosaic Law is how God purposed to lead men to life,³ now the lordship of God's Son is how men are eternally saved. Since Christ is the Word,⁴ in Him is God's path to salvation. (Rom. 10:9&10) That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. The Greek word for confess is #3670 homologeo. Its definition is "to speak the same, to agree."⁵ HELPS Word-studies defines the word as "homologeo (from 3674 /*homo*ú, 'together' and 3004 /lego, 'speak to a conclusion') – properly, to voice the same conclusion, i.e. agree ('confess'); to profess (confess) because in full agreement; to align with (endorse)." These definitions reveal that to confess Christ as Lord is to agree with God that the Son of God is Lord. The Greek word for Lord is #2962 kurios, which is defined as "lord, master, sir; the Lord."⁶ HELPS Word-studies further defines the word as "properly, a person exercising absolute ownership rights; lord (Lord)." The origin of kurios is "from kuros (authority)."⁷ From these definitions of both confess and Lord, we observe that to be saved, Jesus must be given full authority over the soul. Because God has given His Son authority over all things,⁸ to be saved men must agree with God's transfer of divine authority to Christ and subsequently make Him their Lord and Master of their life. Thus, when man accepts the Word and yields fully to Christ's present heavenly authority, God regards this as subjection to His will for man. Christ's lordship supplanting the place of needing to obey every commandment of God. This obedience was necessary in the Old Testament in order to be saved,⁹ but in fact it is impossible¹⁰ simply because of man's weak fleshly ability to keep divine Law.¹¹

(Barnes' Notes on the Bible, Rom. 10:9) "And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord." Here it means to acknowledge him as Lord, that is, as having a right to rule over the soul. (END QUOTE)

To make Jesus Christ your Lord is to give Him full authority over your soul.

This means that both Christ's Word and His Spirit must rule your inner being. If any reject subjection to either Christ's words and Christ's Spirit, this reveals rejection of divine Law and cannot result in receiving the salvation promised by the Son. It is worthy of note that to receive Christ's lordship partially is to receive Him not at all. Thus, not until Christ is given full and complete dominion over the life can God's salvation be given. It is by obedience to the Son of God, via His Word and His Spirit, that produces salvation for the soul. (Heb. 5:9) And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

That which was from the beginning. It is important to recognize that before we were, Christ was.¹² Just as the heavens and earth were created¹³ before man,¹⁴ so did

Christ exist with God in the beginning.¹⁵ It is also at this time, before the world was even formed, that God's purpose for His saved people came into being. (Col. 1:4) According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

(Barnes' Notes on the Bible, Eph. 1:4) In him - In Christ. The choice was not without reference to any means of saving them; it was not a mere purpose to bring a certain number to heaven; it was with reference to the mediation of the Redeemer, and his work. It was a purpose that they should be saved "by" him, and share the benefits of the atonement. The whole choice and purpose of salvation had reference to him, and "out" of him no one was chosen to life, and no one out of him will be saved.

Before the foundation of the world - This is a very important phrase in determining the time when the choice was made. It was not an "afterthought." It was not commenced in time. The purpose was far back in the ages of eternity. (END QUOTE)

The Lord's predestination of His people is what makes Christ's salvation so secure. This was the purpose of the Son of God coming into the world, to save those purposed by God for heaven. Well did Isaiah state that unto us (or for our purpose) a child is born. (Isa. 9:6) For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

(Benson Commentary, Isa. 9:6) Unto us a child is, or, shall be, born ... The human nature of the Messiah is here first set forth. He shall be the child born, the Word made flesh, and that for us; not only for us Jews, but for us men, for us sinners, and especially for us believers. Unto us a son is given — Or, the son, namely, of the virgin, spoken of [in] Isaiah 7:14;¹⁶ the Immanuel, the Song of Solomon of God, so called, not only on account of his miraculous conception, but because of his eternal generation, the Word, who was in the beginning with God, had glory with the Father before the world was, was loved by him before the foundation of the world, and by whom he made the worlds, and created all things. Which we have heard. Here John reveals what was the basis of his faith in the Son of God. It was what the apostle had heard Christ speak. We can tell the depth and nature of a man by the wisdom and words that proceed out of his mouth. (ADD in Luke 6:45?)²³ The words Jesus Christ spoke revealed an understanding and an enlightenment of heavenly truths previously unknown to man. He spoke truths such as for any to be saved they must be born again,²⁴ and that for a man to save his life he must first lose it,²⁵ and that he who believes upon the Son of God, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.²⁶ To John, Christ's words and the wisdom He spoke is what became the first proof that Jesus was in fact God's Son and God's revelation of Himself to man.

Which we have seen with our eyes. Like Peter, John equally attested that he was an eyewitness to Christ's majesty. (II Pet. 1:16) For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. As much as John had heard Christ speak, equally did he have the same opportunity to observe Christ's person and the Son of God's walk in the world. Consequently, the apostle saw with his own eyes multiple instances of Jesus's compassion²⁷ and His divine power;²⁸ he even observed Jesus in His resurrected body.²⁹ Seeing was believing, and thus, for John, there was

22 Eph. 1:21-22 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: ²²*And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,*

Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. ²¹Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. ²²And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: ²³Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. ²⁴But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. ²⁶And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. ²⁷Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

31 John 6:5-13: "When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? ⁶And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. ⁷Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. ⁸One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, ⁹There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? ¹⁰And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. ¹¹And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. ¹²When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. ¹³Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten."

And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. ³³And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils."

34 Luke 8:41-42: "And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: ⁴²for he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him."

codemus, the apostle knew that no man could do these miracles, unless God was with him. (John 3:2) The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Observance of the Savior proved to John and the other disciples, that God was indeed in Christ and that Christ was in God. (Benson) "His miracles were his credentials."³⁵

Which we have looked upon. This implies not simply seeing the Son of God and all that He both said and did, but an even deeper contemplation that John and the other disciples experienced as they became illuminated to the wonderful identity of the Savior. Just as Mary pondered the glory of the Son she brought into the world,³⁶ so also the apostles marveled and were amazed at Christ's person.³⁷

I John 1:2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

Luke 8:49-56: "While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master. ⁵⁰But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole. ⁵¹And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. ⁵²And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth. ⁵³And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise. ⁵⁵And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat. ⁵⁶And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done."

³⁵ Benson Commentary, John 3:1-2

³⁷ Matt. 8:27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

Matt. 9:8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

Matt. 9:33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

Matt. 21:18-20 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered. ¹⁹And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. ²⁰And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

³⁸ John 10:28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

Ultimately, John realized that Jesus represented to the world the eternal life of God. It was this eternal life that John sought to show and bear witness to.³⁸ The Son of God holds great power, such power that He can also give eternal life to as many as believe in Him. I give unto them eternal life (John 10:28) is authoritative and agrees with Christ's purpose in coming into the world. Thus, if a man desires to acquire and share in the eternal life of God, then he must share a personal relationship with the Son of God. This is done by hearing His Word and obeying it, as well as by believing in the Father Who sent Him.³⁹ There is but one door, one access point, by which sinners such as ourselves can find hope of heaven, and it is through the very One sent by God to reveal God's spiritual and eternal life more fully to the world. That which a man has, he can give. Jesus, the Son of Man and Son of God, can therefore give God's eternal life to as many as make Him their Lord. (I John 5:11) And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

(Barnes' Notes on the Bible, I John 5:11) And this is the record - This is the sum, or the amount, of the testimony (μαρτυρία marturia) which God has given respecting him.

That God hath given to us eternal life - Has provided, through the Saviour, the means of obtaining eternal life. See the notes at John 5:24; John 17:2-3.⁴⁰

And this life is in his Son - Is treasured up in him, or is to be obtained through him. (END QUOTE)

(John 6:27) Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed. A man's labor, therefore, should not merely be regulated to feeding his body and the desires it produces, but rather toward that spiritual labor that leads to the saving of the soul. This meat, which is a knowledge of the Son of God and a pursuit of the higher spiritual realm, provides the opportunity for everlasting life.

(Barnes' Notes on the Bible, John 6:27) The meat that perisheth - The food for the supply of your natural needs. It perishes. The strength you derive from it is soon exhausted, and your wasted powers need to be reinvigorated.

That meat which endureth - The supply of your spiritual wants; that which supports, and nourishes, and strengthens the soul; the doctrines of the gospel, that are to a weak and guilty soul what needful food is to the weary and decaying body.

To everlasting life - The strength derived from the doctrines of the gospel is not exhausted.

It endures without wasting away. It nourishes the soul to everlasting life. (END QUOTE)

And shew unto you that eternal life. The purpose of the apostles' earthly ministry was that all men might know that in Christ is life and that He is the light of all men,⁴¹ without which they can only stumble in darkness.⁴² (I John 5:12) He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. In this one single maxim is contained the entire Christian Gospel. If man would believe and rely upon this truth, then very little other preaching would be needed to bring people to salvation. This also is the question that all who profess to believe in Jesus need to ask themselves: "Do I hold true belief in the Son of God in my heart, or do I merely know Christ's name in my mind?" There is a great difference, then, if a man only mentally knows the Lord's name or if he has allowed Christ's full authority over his life. The answer to this question ultimately reveals whether men are saved or not.

I John 1:3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

The Book of I John entails certain immovable truths necessary for spiritual fellowship with God and with the Son of God Who came to reveal Him to the world.⁴³ These divine revelations cannot be compromised if a man truly desires sincere and genuine communion with both the Father and the Son. Each truth must ⁴⁰ John 5:24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

John 17:2&3 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. ³And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

⁴² Prov. 4:19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

John 12:46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

⁴³ Matt. 11:27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

John 1:18 No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

John 14:6-11 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. ⁷If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. ⁸Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. ⁹Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father? ¹⁰Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me?

be carefully considered and thoughtfully reflected upon, simply because each will reveal what is necessary for spiritual connection to the higher, heavenly, and more holy realm of the Spirit. Minimizing or neglecting even one of these great revelations both can and will result in forfeiting fellowship with the heavenly Father. One who will not hear John's message, which is directly linked to John's own personal relationship and account of the Son of God, shall forfeit the fellowship with God that Christ came to offer. For this reason, this epistle is an indispensable book, worthy of our highest interest and continued spiritual study. Ultimately, it was Christ Who taught John, and it is Christ Who has chosen to use John to teach us the path to gaining true and living fellowship with the Father.

I John 1:4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

The Greek word for joy is #5479 chara. Its definition is "joy, delight."⁴⁴ John teaches us that those who sincerely maintain fellowship with the Father through His Son will possess a joy and inward spiritual happiness not found anywhere else in the world. This is that same indescribable joy that Jesus said He would give to His true followers.⁴⁵ (John 15:11) These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

(Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers, John 15:11) These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you.—The better reading is, . . . that My joy may be in you. The joy thought of is that which Christ Himself possessed in the consciousness of His love towards the Father, and of the Father's love towards Him. The brightness of that joy lit up the darkest hours of His own human life, and He wills that it should light up theirs. In the consciousness of their love to God, and of God's love to them, there would be in them, as part of their true life, joy which no sorrow could ever overcome. They were as men with troubled hearts. He has told them of the true source of peace. His own peace He has given to them. He tells them now of the source of joy, and has spoken the word that they may possess the very joy which was the light of His own heart. (END QUOTE)

Though Christ suffered much in the flesh,⁴⁶ He possessed a joy completely for-the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

¹¹*Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.*

⁴⁵ John 17:13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

⁴⁶ Ps. 22:14–18 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. ¹⁵My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death. ¹⁶For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet. ¹⁷I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me. ¹⁸They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Isa. 53:3–12 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. ⁴Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. ⁵But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. ⁶All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. ⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. ⁸He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. ⁹And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. ¹⁰Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. ¹¹He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. ¹²Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Matt. 16:21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Phil. 2:8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

I Pet. 2:20–25 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. ²¹For even hereunto were ye called:

eign to His accusers, betrayers, and murderers. This joy every believer of the Son of God will experience when in fellowship with God. (Ps. 16:11) Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. When a man truly believes, then he will experience for the first time in his life the joy and peace of God that only Christ can provide.⁴⁷ Joy is a spiritual fruit⁴⁸ that is produced in a person's heart whenever faith is present and confidence and trust in God is held. Therefore, he who genuinely exercises faith will experience joy in his soul, a spiritual joy that proves not only the existence of a heavenly Father but also the true nature and disposition of heaven itself. This joy teaches us that heaven is not a gloomy or oppressive habitation but rather is a place of supreme happiness, freedom, and delight. Spiritual joy is an element of the nature of God, and it is what all of heaven reflects. By believing in the Son of God, men can experience a portion of that joy, which will be their full possession when they are received into heaven. This joy is also aptly called *the joy of the Lord*⁴⁹ because its source is the Lord.

because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: ²²Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: ²³Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: ²⁴Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. ²⁵For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

49 Neh. 8:10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.
